

I object to Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air anti-Kerry advertisements. This is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair should serve the public interest. It is not in the public interest for a large corporation to tell local stations what to air. Instead, local communities should see real people from their own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Thank you.
